

General	Australian canoe polo draws on the ideas, skills, experience and contributions of a wide range of people working together to advance the sport. General committee members do not have a specific responsibility but instead may work across several different areas to assist where their skills, energy and interests are best suited.
Prerequisite	Current member of Australian Canoeing
Term of appointment	Two years
Responsibilities	Responsibilities vary but may include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• input to committee discussion on a range of topics and areas necessary for running canoe polo in Australia• assisting other committee members• representing canoe polo to the wider community, including other organisations• following up and communicating with players on a range of matters• organising competitions, trips• management of competitions• preparing processes and procedures• organising referees, equipment, players• organising coaching, refereeing, and officiating programs• general player and/or parent representation
AC reference	Terms of Delegation, Canoe Polo Technical Committee
AC website	Be familiar with and use the AC website and its canoe polo content
Special skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Enthusiasm and energy to contribute to developing canoe polo in Australia• Good interpersonal skills, team work• Follow-up, persistence, initiative