

General	The development manager has overall responsibility for developing playing, coaching, refereeing and officiating skills at all levels of canoe polo. There is a special emphasis on young and developing players.
Prerequisite	Current member of Australian Canoeing
Term of appointment	Two years
Responsibilities	The development manager works with the state organisations to establish suitable programs targeted at achieving a high playing standard and an appropriate level of accredited coaches, referees and officials. Development areas include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• player skills• coaching accreditation• refereeing accreditation• officials accreditation Programs may include: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• training camps• clinics• courses• interstate tours• international tours Other <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Work with AC to maintain up-to-date accreditation lists• Work with the high performance manager to create programs that progressively prepare for, and link into, high performance programs.
AC reference	Terms of Delegation, Canoe Polo Technical Committee
AC website	The AC website lists accredited coaches, referees and officials. The coaching and referee programs are also available at the website.
Special skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Enthusiasm, energy and organisation for developing canoe polo across the sport and across a diverse player base• Excellent interpersonal skills to work with a wide range of people and organisations